THE REASON

WHY

MOSELEY'S

IS SO POPULAR

WITH EVERYBODY:

1st. The coolest Soda Water is drawn from Daw's Patent, containing Frozen Cream and Shaved Ice.

2nd. THE LADIES PARLOR ICE-CREAM SALOON is here, and everything is so nice that the most fastidious cannot fail to be pleased.

3rd. MOSELEY supplies families with the best the market affords, and you can find a fresh supply always ready.

4th. Gents will find good CIGARS and TOBACCO always on hand.

BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

Pink Hardie is Agent for the Bankers, and says he has a letter from Mr. Mehegan, saying that the stock in them is better than ever. Go and try them.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4, 1870.

THE ELECTION.

It is impossible, at the time of going to press, to give anything reliable in regard to the election in the county, or even in the city. The vote here will fall very little if any short of 2,200. Those who claim to "know the ropes," think the Radical majority will be about 700, or, perhaps, a little over. At the same time they say it will require 900 majority in the city to carry the county. But all is conjecture, and the count alone can decide.

We at first intended to keep from going to press until just in time to save the mail to-night, but even then we should be unable to get any reliable returns; the vote here will not be counted out before midnight. So we have concluded to go to press at the usual hour and issue an extra in the forenoon to-morrow, giving such returns as we may get.

TO-DAY.

If any of our readers expect much from us to-day in the way of editorial, they will be disappointed. It is no time for writing editorials, and if it were, it is impossible to do it, with the crowd and noise at the Court House where the voting is going on, making it impossible to concentrate one's thoughts on any subject for two minutes at a time.

The election progressed very quietly up to a little after three o'clock, when a difficulty arose between James Harris, the candidate for Congress, and a white citizen, which came near resulting in a general fight, the result of which can only be conjectured. But by the energetic and commendable exertions of the police, regular and temporary, the tumult was quelled after considerable uproar. As the case will undergo investigation, we forbear attempting any particulars.

PRUSSIA'S FORTRESSES AND PORTS.

[From La Liberte, July 16th.]

Prussia has nine first class fortresses.

Mayence, Coblentz, and Cologne, on the Rhine; Konigstein and Magdeburg, on the Elbe; Stettin, on the Oder; Posen, on the Warthe; Dantzic, at the mouth of the Vistula; Koenigsberg, on the Pregel. Mayence is in Hesse; Konigstein is the virgin fortress of Saxony. The rest are in Prussia proper.

The second class fortresses are fourteen in number: Saar-Louis, on the Saar; Wesel, on the Rhine; Minden, on the Weser; Petart, on the Jera; Torgau, on the Elbe; Spandau (the political prison,) on the Spree; Gloyan, on the Oder; Glatz and Neisse, on the Neisse; Sonderburg-Duppel, Kiel-Frederichstadt, Stralsund, and Colberg, on the Baltic.

The ports of Kiel and Jahde are the most important naval fortresses. They are building enormous revolving plated turrets at those places. The other strong places are, Wittenberg, on the Elbe; Kosel and Kustrin, on the Oder; Grandenz, on the Vistula; Swidemund and Pillau, on the Balk; Dresden, the bridge of Dusseldorf, the mouth of the Elbe, the mouth of the Weser, Memel.

A West Point cadet writes this to the New York Standard in regard to the deeply-injured Smith: "If the white plebes were as guilty in impertinence to the drill-masters and officers as he is, they would be confined to their tents for two weeks, with no liberty, except at meal times. His officers are actually afraid to use the same language to him that they do to others for political reasons, and he is treated far better than any boy at his entry has ever been since West Point was founded. The few trials he has endured have raised a terrible storm, and any one who has conversed with a cadet can understand what terrible trials the new students are compelled to endure, compared with which, his are pleasures."

The Iuka (Mississippi) Gazette of the 27th says: "President Jefferson Davis passed up this road a few days ago on his way to Europe for his family. We have some reasons to believe that he has been invited by a crowned head to come to that country and engage in a certain war now going on. If Mr. Davis were to do this, thousands of Confederate soldiers would follow him, and to but too glad to fight under this brave soldier, pure statesman, and unspotted gentleman. Jeff Davis to day stands higher in the estimation of the virtuous and brave than any man in America. We hope he may be made a Marshal of France. May God's richest blessings attend the pure, good man, and may he find his loved ones in health and happiness on his arrival."

HISTORY.—Mr. Lincoln was a soldier of the government, shot down while at the head of its army, and the pension to his widow is not disproportioned to his service or his rank.—N. Y. Tribune.

He was shot in the National Theatre, Washington, looking upon a performance on Good Friday. What is history?—Richmond Dispatch.

History in this case is that Mr. Lincoln was shot in Ford's Theatre, and not in the National.—Washington Republican.

Grant will be in his element at Long Branch to day. He is going to the races, where he will see horses and be able to "talk horse" to his heart's delight. We should, however, prefer to hear of his being engaged in protecting the people of North Carolina from the outrageous proceedings of Holden and his gang of Jayhawkers. New york telegram July 30th.

James Singleton was stabbed in a fight at a baker's shop in east Fourteenth street, New York, Monday, and died instantly.—Several arrests were made.

A. M. Brown's clothing store, at Englewood, N. Y., was robbed of $6,000 worth of goods Sunday, and the citizens have formed a vigilance committee for the arrest of the thieves.

All the shoe machinery for a large establishment was shipped to Switzerland from Boston last week.

NORTH CAROLINA AFFAIRS.

Holden's plea for raising an army, declaring martial law, and inaugurating a reign of terror in North Carolina, is that the Ku Klux controlled everything in certain counties, and that they could only be put down by the high-handed measures resorted to. It was vital to Holden's cause that he should prove his allegation. What is it that the Radicals cannot prove when an election is to be carried? Holden now offers the proof, which consists of a card signed by sixteen men who acknowledge that they have been members of an organization in Alamance county, known as "The White Brotherhood" or "Constitutional Union Guard," formed for political purposes and for the mutual protection of the members thereof and their families." They charge that the organization has been abused to bad purposes and is responsible for crimes that have been committed. One of the signers, one James E. Boyd, publishes a long letter, in which he undertakes to expose the doings of this organization. It is to be observed that neither the card of the sixteen nor the letter of Boyd names any individuals who have committed the offences spoken of. These men have remained until now in the organization, and it is fair to suppose that they have been and now are in Holden's pay. Kirk, his commander, recently stated to the correspondent of the New York Herald that "We had men who joined the Ku Klux Klan and betrayed them." It is known that Boyd was released from arrest by Holden, and that for several days before the publication of his letter he was constantly about Holden's office. The Raleigh SENTINEL alleges that Boyd's letter "was written and considered in the Governor's office." Men who were vile enough to join an organization in order to betray it, are vile enough to commit crimes in order to ruin it. Such men cannot be believed on oath. If these men know that crimes were committed by the organization of which they were members, they cannot fail to know the individuals by whom these crimes were committed. It is to be noted that they have failed to point out any such individuals.

This miserable plot is Holden's last card, and is the card that the Radicals always resort to when hard pressed.—Richmond Whig.

NORTH CAROLINA.

We publish in another column the address of the Central Conservative Executive Committee of North Carolina, to the people of that State, setting forth the condition of affairs, and urging upon all a quiet submission for the time to the great wrongs now being inflicted by Holden, Kirk and their minions. The address is in the right spirit. It urges that no means of retaliation be resorted to, no matter what the provocation. Here are some of the judicious words of the address: "But whatever may be done, we earnestly and respectfully admonish all our people opposed to these high handed measures to abstain from violence, and urge them to be quiet, but firm and determined, and go to the polls on the day of election and vote unless prevented by violence.

"The ballot box, we hope will prove a peaceful remedy for existing evils; there let the people of all classes and races set the seal of their condemnation upon those who now thus inflict upon them injury and outrage. Bear present unusual evils for a while, rather than fly to worse, if possible, for relief, in the circumstances by which we are surrounded. If we are prudent this state of things cannot last long."

And there has been no resistance to the drunken, thieving rabbles. Holden and Kirk have quartered upon the people at the people's expense. And yet we find that Grant has sent three companies of United States Artillery to support Holden. Why is this here, when even the grossest outrages have failed to provoke retaliation? Is it not because the election is to come off in a few days? Is it not because it is thought that these troops will add to the measures of intimidation already resorted to, and aid in Brushing out the antiRadical party? No other motive can be assigned for such a course of oppression.

Grant has interfered in the affairs of a State, but he has interfered in behalf of a despotism, of a disregard of law and liberty. There is no condition of affairs in North Carolina calling for the interference of troops and this whole scheme has been concocted with the endorsement of the President of the United States for the purpose of extending the power of a political party about to be condemned by the people?

Is this Republican Government? Let the people pass their judgment upon such acts at the ballot box.—N. Y. Albany Argus.

THE NORTH CAROLINA SHAME

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce, a candid and non partizan paper says: "The more peace in North Carolina, the more troops to harass her citizens. Governor Holden's musketeers having failed to goad on the people of that State to insurrection, President grant now takes a turn at it, and has sent three artillery companies to Raleigh to be followed by others. The Raleigh telegram stating these facts, adds the usual observation—"No resistance to law has been made in any part of the State."—So our North Carolina exchanges say over and over again. The whole trouble is one of Gov. Holden's own making. He causes martial law to be declared, and arrests hundreds of his political opponents on the pretense that they contemplate treason and rebellion, although they have not lifted a finger or uttered a word, so far as we know, to warrant the accusation. The Governor is trying on one of those games that European tyrants are in the habit of practicing when they want to suppress free criticism of their misgovernment. They raise a hullabaloo about secret societies, plots, dangers to the public welfare, &c., and proceed thereupon, under cover of these pretexts, to proclaim martial law, throw respectable citizens into prison, and then claim the credit of saving the State! This imposture, copied by Gov. Holden will not deceive intelligent Americans. He and his political myrmidons and the Administration that sanctions and abets his outrages, will suffer for them when the inevitable reckoning comes to be made up."

MANLY AND JUST.

The Cincinnati Commercial, being impeached by an ultra Radical newspaper with infidelity to the party, among other things in reply says:

"If the policy of governing the reconstructed States, as illustrated by Governor Holden, of North Carolina, is endorsed by the Republican party, as it seems to have been by the President, then the Commercial is not Republican."

The Commercial is a paper of character and great influence, and it is quite encouraging to see such a paper taking such an independent and just stand with regard to the North Carolina tyranny, so entirely at war with republicanism, and subversive of our system of government. If the manly spirit of the Commercial is approved in the Northwest, we need not despair of the Republic.—Richmond Dispatch.

A little boy, four years old, was burned to death Monday in a stable, in Indianapolis. The child was playing in the stable, and it is supposed set fire to some hay.

THE HOLDEN-KIRK OUTRAGE.

Governor Holden is determined to command North Carolina by armed force. His negro mercenaries, headed by the infamous Colonel Kirk, are arresting white men in all directions, and the Governor boasts he means to have them tried by military commissions and shot. Kirk, the man selected by Governor Holden, to lead his ruffians and cut throats, is a proper and fitting instrument. He was virtually a land pirate during the late war. He placed himself at the head of a band of deserters from both the rebel and Union armies, and went about plundering the people. In one locality he plundered rebels as a Union man, and in another, he plundered Union men as a rebel. He traversed the border counties of Tennessee and North Carolina, committing murders and other outrages upon the people, and is, really, at present a fugitive from justice, with a price upon his head. Yet this man is acting under the authority of Governor Holden, and General Grant has sent Federal soldiers to aid him in North Carolina. And all on what pretense? No resistance to law has been made in any part of the State. That is confessed. When men are arrested, they do not take up arms and resist the authorities. They appeal to the Civil Courts, and these the Governor repudiates and defies. The truth is, the whole trouble is one of Governor Holden's own making. He causes martial law to be declared, and arrests hundreds of his political opponents on the pretense that they contemplate treason and rebellion, although they have not lifted a finger or uttered a word to warrant the accusation. An election is to be held in North Carolina on Thursday next, and all these outrages are intended as aids to the Radical party.—The State is to be carried at all hazards.—A hundred men will be shot if such a course is necessary to keep Holden in power. In the midst of all these outrages and difficulties, the Conservative men of the State have issued an address to the people from which we make the following extract:

[Here follows a portion of the address the Conservative Executive Committee's address to the people of North Carolina.]

Since this address was issued, Governor Holden has openly set at defiance the civil law of the State, as expounded by Chief-Justice Pearson. He is now as much of a despot as the Czar of Russia, and General Grant is using the troops of the United States to keep him upon a blood stained throne.—Philadelphia Age.

GRANT AND HOLDEN.

So Grant endorses Holden! And who is disappointed? Leaving out the question of affinity that causes birds of like feather to flock together, there are many reasons why the author of "Let us have peace" should join hands with the proclaimer of "Let us have war," and have that war with a vengeance. The principle reason is that Holdenism is a natural outgrowth of radicalism run mad—a higher development of it than it has yet obtained in any other locality. The policy of Holden being radicalism, and Grant knowing that he owes everything to it, must sustain it in spite of law, order or decency. To desert it, because it is more luxuriant in its growth of rascality than in more northern latitudes would be to pave the way to his own downfall.

But what does this endorsement mean? Is there anything in it beyond mere political effect? Yes. It implicates the Federal Executive in a plot against the rights and liberties of the people of a sovereign State. By his support of the iniquitous measures now being carried out in North Carolina he gives aid, encouragement, and countenance to a reckless faction whose object is the usurpation of power and place. By it, he also subordinates the civil power to the military and shows his contempt for all judicial authority that clashes against the interest of his proteges, and of the habeas corpus in a way that cannot be misunderstood. This, a few years ago would have been a most wonderful predicament in which to find the President of the United States, but in these days of radical supremacy, it is getting to be a thing expected, rather than one productive of surprise.

Respectable and liberal minded people of his party may protest against the perpetration of this outrage, not only on the people of North Carolina but on the whole country, and radical journals with some sense of right left may deplore his action in the matter, yet they know that the President would not dare to act otherwise. He may act independently in cases where those of his own party are the only litigants—he may over power Fenton and snub Sumner, yet when he is brought to decide whether his or another party is in the wrong, he must proclaim in favor of the Radicals without any regard to justice or right. However palpably in error and the cases in which it is in the wrong are by no means limited) radicalism receives no rebuke at the hands of its principal tool, the President of the United States.

The disturbers of the peace, and the marauders of Kirk and Holden may boast as they may of having the support of Grant, yet if the people of North Carolina are fully aroused to the extent of their danger and are determined to rid themselves of their common enemy, rascals, rogues and the Federal Executive may yet be taught that there are rights belonging to a free people which cannot be trampled on with impunity.—Petersburg Courier.

BANKRUPTCY.—By an amendment to the Bankrupt Act all persons who apply therefor are entitled to a discharge from all their debts contracted prior to 1868, whether their assets amount to anything or not.—The fifty per cent clause now applies only to debts contracted since the 1st of January 1869.

The amendment is the following language:

"Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the provisions a second clause of the thirty-third section of an act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, amended by the first section of an act in amendment thereof, shall not apply to those debts from which the bankrupt seeks a discharge, which were contracted prior to the 1st of January, 1869."

A DOMESTIC WAR.—The war in Europe absorbs so much of everybody's attention, that they do not realize the fact that war prevails in a section of this country. A large number of armed men, operating under the sanction of the State and Federal governments, are making war upon the inhabitants of North Carolina, murdering and maltreating defenceless families and driving others to take refuge in neighboring States. These marauders treat their victims to such revivals of the features of the late conflict as rides upon bare backed horses, the riders with their hands tied behind their backs and their feet fastened together, by ropes, under the horses' bellies. Really, this home war should claim more of our notice than the dispute between the crowned heads of France and Prussia, as it the more nearly concerns our welfare, but somehow our patriots do not see the matter in that light. —Southern Guardian, (Columbia S. C.)

The Troy (N. Y.) Board of Health have commenced to take up the concrete pavement, having decided that it is detrimental to the public health.

PRUSSIA AND FRANCE.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ARMS USED.

We take from the New York World a description of the guns used by the two powers now at war—the Needle and the Chassepot:

THE NEEDLE GUN.

The Prussian needle gun is the invention of Mr. Dreyse, a manufacturer of arms at Sommerda, who spent over thirty years in trying to construct a perfect breech-loading rifle. The cartridge is inserted at the rear, and the ignition is produced by the intrusion of a needle into the fulminate attached to the cartridge. The barrel is 36.-06 inches long, and is rifled with four grooves down to the breech, where the chamber, or bed for the cartridge, is smooth and a little larger than the bore. The bed enlarges slightly to the rear so as to admit the cartridge freely, and the lower part of the bore for a distance of 6.17 inches is enlarged so that the ball is gradually compressed into the grooves. The rear of the barrel is conical, and is called the mouth-piece. Over this part there is a six sided cylinder, which holds all the mechanism of the piece. The air-chamber, next to the cylinder, has the needle pipe screwed into its breech.

At the time of the adoption of this new gun the cartridge was twisted, the sabot being enlarged and placed between the powder and the ball.

The ball is spherio conical. The charge of powder is 56 grains. The weight of the Prussian needle-gun is 10.27 pounds to 11 3 pounds. The mechanism can be taken apart without screw driver, vice, &c. It can be safely and easily cleaned, and the gun being small is particularly adapted for use in the contracted space of loop holes, on horseback, &c. The objections to the Prussian needle-gun are the danger of a weakening of the spiral spring and the possibility that the needle may not be propelled with sufficient force to pierce the cartridge. On account of the ease and rapidity with which it is loaded, there is also danger of a waste of ammunition, as the soldier, in the heat of battle, will often fire his piece as fast as possible, even when he knows the firing has no effect. To make the best use of the needle-gun the soldier requires special training. The Prussian army is very well trained to its use, and in this respect has an advantage over the French, who have never been into a great battle with their Chassepot.

THE CHASSEPOT.

The fire-arm which has been adopted by the French army is the celebrated Chassepot rifle, which is probably the most efficient weapon ever put in the hands of an army of infantry. It resembles the Prussian needle-gun, but possesses several improvements. During the late war between Prussia and Austria the effective work of the newly invented needle gun attracted the notice of all fighting nations; and the French, anticipating that they would sometime be called upon to punish Prussia for her alleged arrogance and want of honor, immediately set to work to invent a weapon that should surpass the needle-gun in its power as an engine of war. The result was the invention by M. Chassepot, after long and careful study, having the Prussian gun to aid him and to improve upon. After the new rifle had been tested over and over again, the attention of the Emperor was invited to it, and it was not long before he was convinced of its superiority, and ordered its adoption in the army.

One of the principal improvements which the Chassepot has over the needle gun of Prussia, is that its movement is simpler, and instead of being tightly enclosed in the breech by a cylinder, it is almost fully exposed, and the employment of India rubber as an obturator. It is argued that the Prussian gun, after it had been discharged several times in quick succession, becomes hot and damp in the chamber, owing to the inability of the gas which comes back after the explosion of the cartridge to escape. The inside soon becomes dirty, and the soldier is required to take his piece apart and clean it. The French gun is always open and while there is no gas shut up in a chamber to corrode the metal, it can in a moment be cleansed from dirt or rust, and the soldier is always able to quickly discover any accident to his rifle.

It is claimed that this gun is not so easily clogged as the Prussian needle gun, and is more substantially built.

The Chassepot is handled in the following manner: While loading, hold the gun in the left hand with the butt-end resting on the left hip. The lever is then turned with but one moment, from right to left, and with another pulled back, after which the cartridge is inserted into the opening thus effected. By a third movement—pushing back the leaver into its original position—the gun becomes ready to be fired off. The projectile is a rather long slug with the end rounded and pointed like our rifle ball. The charge, which is attached to it in a paper covering, is composed of a peculiar powder, specially manufactured for the purpose. The distance at which this gun carries with certainty is very considerable—over 1,000 metres. Both the infantry and the chasseurs have only the one model, but the bayonets differ, in so far as those of the chasseurs are sword bayonets.

THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE MILITARY WEAPON KNOWN.—The Mitrailleur, which is as yet untried in practical warfare, is considered by the French as the most destructive military weapon known. Recently, 200 wretched horses, already condemned to the poleax, were purchased at the rate of four or five francs each, and ranged at a considerable distance. Two mitrailleures were brought to play on them, and in three minutes after two discharges not one of the animals remained standing. On a second occasion, 500 horses were brought down at a single trial. This formidable weapon is constructed as follows:

It is a light 37-barreled gun, arranged that its barrels may be discharged simultaneously, or consecutively. The 37 cartridges, intended for one charge, are contained in a small box. A steel plate, with corresponding holes, is placed on the open box, which is then reversed, and the cartridges fall points fore most into their respective holes. They are prevented from falling through by the rims at their bases. The loaded plate is then introduced into the breech slot, and when the breech is closed by a lever a number of steel pins, pressed by spiral springs, are only prevented from striking the percussion arrangement in the cartridges by a plate in front of them. When this case is moved slowly by a handle, the cartridges are fired one by one. If the plate be withdrawn rapidly they follow each other so quickly that their discharge is all but simultaneous. The invention seems very well adapted for use in forts or other permanent places of defense or offense, but its carriage and management in the field would present many and insuperable obstacles to its general use.

MASONIC PEN.—The Rondout Courier gets the following story from a telegraph operator in that village: A member of the Masonic Order telegraphed to a companion down the river somewhere: "Make room for ten Royal Arch-Masons. Coming to-day." When the companions arrived they found a pen had been built for their accommodation, the telegram at its destination reading, "Make room for ten R A M's. Coming to-day."

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, cons derably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates above which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this state who claimed to possess mutual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

Sad Accident.—The Weldon News gives account of a melancholy accident which occurred in the upper end of Halifax county on Friday last—the shooting of a colored man named Major Mills by Mr. John O. Heptinstall. The deceased was a hundred and fifty yards off, in the field, and not in sight. The ball passed through the right breast an l through the lungs. A jury of inquest of six whites and six blacks returned a verdict of accidental shooting.

Everett Captured.—We learn from the Roanoke News that Policeman McGee and Wm. Phillips, of Weldon, got on the track of John H. Everett, implicated in the robberies of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad cars, last week, and followed him from Plymouth, N. C., to Norfolk, thence to Baltimore and from there to New York, where they captured him, and immediately telegraphed to Gov. Holden for a requisition to bring him to North Carolina.—There was a reward of $500 offered for him by the Railroad company, and we suppose he will end his career in the penitentiary. And thus will end the history of another prominent Radical of Halifax.

Dr. and Mrs. Lacy's School opens tomorrow for the Fall session. It is always better for pupil and teacher to commence on the first day.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. The large increase of its new business will show the popularity of this grand old company, issuing over five thousand policies during the last six months.

Gen. S. D. Wait, General Agent, informs us that those policies issued through him during the above time, have averaged $3,366.66. This is a large average.

False Pretences.

The fast and continually increasing sales of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have provoked the envy of a certain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their utterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These imposters hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great American Tonic, a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighbors profitable. As the demand for Hostetter's Bitters is now so large and urgent as to tax to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to wring in the merest trash by false representations, are of little consequence to its proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at this warm season, when a real invigorant is greatly needed, the sufferer from general debility, indigestion, biliousness or nervous weakness, is coaxed into using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue, instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined, it is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. It is in the interest of parties who have been or may be influenced by the persuasion of plausible charlatans, that this article is published. With the light of twenty years experience to guide him, why should the invalid take a leap in the dark.

From the Insurance Times, New York.

Complimentary to the Ætna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Connecticut, doing business in North Carolina, by W. H. Crow, General Agent:

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD.

Charity itself fulfills the law and charity is only benevolence in act. We can not separate love from charity, and although charity is truly said to begin at home, it spreads from that sacred centre throughout the universe. There is no genuine love which does not seek to protect as well as to cherish. We observe this instinct in the animal creation, but man's care of the treasures of his affection is much more far seeing and far-reaching. It not only extends throughout life but proceeds even beyond it. This benign circumspection is rightly esteemed as one of man's most estimable qualities, but when we see it, as in the great company whose name appears at the head of this article, assume the consistency, regularity, and method of a perfect system, practical, easy, economical, equitable, remunerative, and inevitable in its operation and effect, it appears something essentially god-like.

We challenge any skeptic or misanthrope to peruse the record of the Ætna Life of Hartford without feeling a glow of pride and a sensation of gratitude for the achievements of modern progress and philanthropy. We are speaking of no abstract object erected for our respectful and distant wonderment; it has on the contrary become imbedded inextricably in our social system, and is something to be practiced by every father and brought home to every family.

Nine years ago it was thought an astonishing thing to say that the Ætna Life insured within twelve months no less than 589 persons, received an annual income of $78,533.67, and presented an accumulation of assets amounting to $281,263.65. How comparatively dwarfish these figures appeared five years afterward, when the company began to increase its number of policies by thousands, and its income and assets by millions! In 1865 it issued 8,806 new policies, earned an income of $1,683,039.57, and exhibited an accumulation of $2,038,823 05.

But this was supposed to be a finality.—It was asserted that life insurance and the Ætna had reached their acme. Yet the next year completely dissipated this illusion by a duplicature of almost all these items, and in 1867—which it must be admitted was a great and glorious year for life insurance—the Ætna granted 15,251 new policies, had an income of $5,129,447.-34, and assets reaching the sum of $7,538,-612.35.

This tremendous growth has gone on.

The company's last fiscal year, concluding on the 1st of June last, offers with the exception of new policies the same miraculous features of increase. The premium receipts during this period were $5,216,630, insuring 11,106 new members, which, with the addition of $810,373 in interest, swelled the income to $6,026,903, and increased the assets by $2,850,336 to a total of Fourteen Million Dollars!

We quote these figures to show how firmly and extensively the Ætna Life has become intrenched in the favor of the American people. The question by what means this immense growth has been attained is a subject of equal interest.

"Upon what meat does this our Cæsar feed,
That he is grown so great?"

Wherein does this company surpass others that it is entitled to and receives so much preference?

Its principal points of excellence are its security, economy, justice, and enterprising management, and the skillful adaption of its plans to the requirements and advantage of the people.

Its perfect security may be inferred from the fact that it not only has assets safely and profitably invested amounting to $14,-000,000 but a surplus above all liabilities of $3,110,206,07 or $133.02 to every $100 of liabilities, so that should it wind up now it could not only pay every cent it owes but also give every policy-holder out of earnings actually saved and put by a dividend of $33.02 per centum.

Its economy is equally demonstrable, for in this respect it excels twenty of the leading life companies in the United States, showing annually less expenditure and loss by death by from six to ten per cent., which has enabled it to save in four years over and above its competitors the sum of $1,-202,924.82. Its officers have effected this triumph by the exercise of judicious discrimination in the selection of risks and the conduct of the business on the most effective and economical plans.

Its enterprise is shown in the vast growth and prosperity it has attained throughout the Union and the Dominion of Canada, and in the employment of the best, most zealous, and reliable agents on the continent. To laud its officers were superfluous, as their work, the company itself, speaks for them in terms we can not equal, much less transcend.

The method and entire system of the Æ na are characterized by a liberal and equitable consideration of the interests of the insured. We observe this quality conspicuously in its practice of the principle of non-forfeiture, and in the lowness of its premium rates, and in its contribution plan of awarding dividends which render policies self sustaining much sooner than in the majority of other companies. It has also many more new, original, and excellent features than we have space to mention: such as the ten year term policy, etc., which prove of great benefit to the insuring community.

The Ætna Life has the great merit of unprecedented success and the still greater one of deserving it in every particular. It is a privilege to belong to the company, and a blessing to the insured and his heirs, a source of consolation through life, an unspeakable solace at death, and thereafter a comfort and support to those left behind who were bound to the departed by the ties of relationship and mutual affection.—Let every husband and father take out a policy in the Ætna, and he will find his days lighter, his nights more peaceful, his heart lighter, and his brain more unclouded ever after.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, August 3.—Hon Charles H. Porter was this morning nominated by the Republican Convention here for re-election to Congress.

The Rubber Company intends to commence suit in the United States Court against the Richmond dentists for infringment of patent.

The State Journal, the Republican organ, repudiates the action of the Congressional Convention which nominated Porter to-day for re-election to Congress, claiming that he was nominated by the proscription portion of the Republican party who wish to keep liberal men out of it.

Norfolk, August 3.—At the Radical-Republican Convention held to-day in Portsmouth, James H. Platt, Jr., the present member of Congress from the second district, was nominated by nearly a unanimous vote for re-election.

FOREIGN.

Paris, August 3.—The Journal Officiel, of this morning, declares that the present war is not against Germany nor against King William, but against Bismarck. The Journal regrets that the Prussian King submits to the domination of this violent and unscrupulous minister.

Napoleon has ordered the release of correspondents imprisoned at Metz.

Dr. Nelaton has gone to headquarters of the army to organize an ambulance system. La Presse says the declaration of Grammont regarding the neutrality of Belgium, which was recently sent to London, will soon be communicated to Parliament. A Captain in the Prussian army, who claimed to be a Belgian, has been arrested here. The Emperor is now busy improving soldiers' uniforms which will be made much lighter. Garde Mobiers are going forward to Chalons as fast as possible. The people there receive them with great enthusiasm. The Monitor says there will be no fete in Paris on the 15th of August this year. The Empress will not go to the front on a visit as reported.

It is rumored that England and the United States are urging negotiations whereby Hamburg and Bremen shall be kept open ports, during the war.

London details of the Saarbrucken fight say it began at 11 o'clock yesterday, forenoon. The French passed the frontier in force; the Prussians were driven from their strong position, by a sharp artillery fire of the French. The latter remained masters of the position which they had won without serious loss. The Emperor and Prince Imperial witnessed the conflict and returned to Metz to dinner.

Versailles, August 3.—A terrible calamity has been prevented by brave men hauling a burning box of ammunition from the magazine into the streets where the box exploded.

London, August 3.—The following is given today as the number and disposition of the Prussian army: The Duke of Mecklenburg commands 140,000 men at the mouth of the River Elbe; Falkenstein has 50,000 men near Elmerwrath; De Bittenfeld commands 50,000. The army of the Rhine consists of the following bodies, 80,000 men at Coblentz under steinmitz; 180,000 at the junction of the Maine with the Rhine under Prince Frederick Charles, and 160,000 along the upper Rhine under Prince Royal. Frederick William, chiefs of staffs are Moltke, Blumthal, Sparring and Stiepel. Three hundred pounds are paid in Paris for substitutes and are scarce.

It is understood all war correspondents have been finally expelled from both lines. The morning's Standard, referring to the Alabama question, hopes that, in the present war, England's neutrality will be less ambiguous. England is freely exporting horses to Germany, which are immediately forwarded to the seat of war. A late number of the Vienna Post says: The Duke of Boden asserts that King William, in conversation with him, in 1866, informed him that Count Von Bismarck was eager to cede this region about the River Saar to France but that the King and his council declined.

Horses are said to be scarce in both Germany and France. The Germans need them for cavalry, the French for artillery. The Danish press is favorable to France. Dutch troops now occupy Harlem and Utrecht, and various points on the Yssale.

It is said that Madlle Nilson is paid 25,000 pounds sterling, for six months, the contract to sing in the United States; she is to receive 5,000 pounds as a gift, on starting for America.

Liverpool, Aug. 3.—Two well known merchants whose names are withheld at present for prudential reasons, absconded to-day after overdrawing 20,000 pounds each from bank.

Vienna, Aug. 3.—The Austrian Press is generally exultant over the abrogation of the concordat.

Brussels, Aug. 3.—The catholic party have been successful in the late election.

Berlin, Aug 3.—King William has issued a proclamation at Mayence, assuming supreme command.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs: Dear Sir:—Yours of 12th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" as to bond, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the press upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty-six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Places it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague, and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
